Sorting household waste

www.senja-avfall.no

Household waste

Combustible waste

Waste that can be burned. Dispose in rubbish bin / neighbourhood container.

Plastic packaging

Plastic bags

packaging

Polystyrene

sanitary towels

Empty toilet rolls

Alkaline batteries

Paper and cardboard

Dispose in rubbish bin / neighbourhood container.

Newspapers

Magazines

Flyers and brochures

Cardboard

Wash, fold and stuff. Put in a white/reversed bag

Beverage cartons Cardboard boxes

Organic waste

Biodegradable waste. Dispose in rubbish bin/neighbourhood container.

Food and peelings

Paper towels

Coffee filter/

Egg cartons

Eggshells

Bottles, jars and metal packaging

Only glass and metal used in food packaging. (=does not contain toxic substances) Dispose at neighbourhood collection points or in glass and metal containers.

Bottles

Tubes

Aluminum foil

Household contents

Bulky waste

Dispose at recycling centre or at bulky waste collection points.

Mattresses/rugs

Porcelain / crystal

Electrical appliances

Dispose at recycling centre or deliver to a dealer of similar electrical products.

Car parts

Washing machines

Refrigerators

Vacuum cleaners

Coffee Machines

Hair dryers

Kitchen appliances

Electric utilities

Cameras

Hazardous waste

Dispose at recycling centre or at bulky waste collection points.

Car batteries

batteries

Varnish / glue

Aerosol cans

Products with warning symbols

Infectious equipment

Windows (PCB) 1965-75